Annual Conference 2017 Stepping up, leading the way

18 May 2017, QEII Centre, London

This year CFG celebrates 30 years of championing strong financial leadership across the sector, supporting and guiding their members and others through many challenges and changes over the past three decades.

CFG's Annual Conference returns to the QEII Centre in London on 18 May 2017. The conference is the must-attend event of the year for all finance professionals working in the charity sector.

See a diverse range of speakers confirmed, for presentations, workshops and panel discussions, in addition to three thought-provoking plenary sessions.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Sacha Romanovitch, CEO, Grant Thornton (opening plenary)
- Fabian Picardo QC MP, Chief Minister, HM Government of Gibraltar (lunchtime plenary)
- Baroness Hayter, Shadow Minister, DExEU (lunchtime plenary)
- Kathryn Burton, Partner, haysmacintyre
- Linda Cherrington, Director of Finance, MNDA
- Nicki Deeson, International Finance Director, Amnesty International
- Simon Hopkins, CEO, Turn2Us

The event exhibition runs alongside the main conference programme and offers a comprehensive marketplace of over 50 suppliers and service providers who can assist in tackling the issues your charity faces and help you manage your charity more efficiently.

Don't miss this opportunity to gain practical advice from expert speakers, hear insightful charity case studies, browse the conference exhibition and join in the debate on the big challenges facing the sector and finish the day networking with your peers at the drinks reception.
