We will be in contact in due course with confirmation of your unique log-in.

Membership details will be held and processed by Charity Finance Group in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998. Your personal data will enable CFG to keep you supplied with the benefits of membership. Your contact details, information about your organisation and its suppliers, plus details of skills/knowledge and expertise that you have informed us you would be willing to share will be made available online to other CFG members only. Communications from CFG may include information from third parties that the Group considers are of interest to members. We will never supply your data to a third party except where it is necessary to do so in order for you to obtain a specific membership benefit and we will always give you the opportunity to opt out of that benefit. Contacts will receive the following email communication from CFG as part of their membership benefits: regular CPD email, weekly Jobs Bulletin, Finance Focus, information regarding CFG special interest groups (SIG's), CFG events and updates from CFG's policy team, as well as general correspondence regarding your membership. You will be able to manage your mailing preferences and you will always be given the opportunity to unsubscribe from communications from CFG.
